

Society of Gynecologic Surgeons 46th Annual Scientific Meeting July 9 - 12, 2020

Learning Objectives

- Evaluate evidence regarding when vaginal, laparoscopic or robotic approaches to gynecologic surgery are indicated.
- Apply methods for optimizing online presence as a marketing tool
- Summarize outcome data of new and innovative gynecologic surgery technologies.
- Apply knowledge of pelvic anatomy and perioperative care best practices to minimize perioperative complications.
- Apply knowledge of medical device innovation to avoid common pitfalls.
- Describe how to conduct and evaluate high quality surgical education research to maximize trainee education.

Interprofessional Continuing Education - Rush Accreditation

In support of improving patient care, Rush University Medical Center is accredited by the American Nurses Credentialing Center (ANCC), the Accreditation Council for Pharmacy Education (ACPE), and the Accreditation Council for Continuing Medical Education (ACCME) to provide continuing education for the healthcare team.

Rush University Medical Center designates this live activity for a maximum of 22.00 AMA PRA Category 1 Credit(s)[™]. Physicians should claim only credit commensurate with the extent of their participation in the activity.

To claim Continuing Education Credit, attendees must:

- Attend the entire session;
- Evaluate and Generate a certificate according to the instructions.

Disclosure

Unapproved Uses of Drugs/Devices: In accordance with requirements of the FDA, the audience is advised that information presented in this continuing medical education activity may contain references to unlabeled or unapproved uses of drugs or devices. Please refer to the FDA approved package insert for each drug/device for full prescribing/utilization information.

It is the policy of the Rush University Office of Interprofessional Continuing Education to ensure that its CE activities are independent, free of commercial bias and beyond the control of persons or organizations with an economic interest in influencing the content of CE. Everyone who is in a position to control the content of an educational activity must disclose all relevant financial relationships with any commercial interest (including but not limited to pharmaceutical companies, biomedical device manufacturers, or other corporations whose products or services are related to the subject matter of the presentation topic) within the preceding 12 months.

The course directors, planners and faculty of this activity have the following relevant financial relationships to disclose.
